Learn how plants communicate- with color!

“PSSSSST! Did you know plants can talk? It’s true! Plants use the colors of their flowers to communicate with animals. But why animals? Because they help plants make seeds by moving pollen from one flower to another.”

Join us as we read Flower Talk, by Sara Levine and illustrated by Masha D’yans, and learn all of the secrets about how plants talk!

- This event is FREE. Registration is not required.
- All children attending the program must be accompanied by an adult.
- This program is geared towards children ages 6 and under, but all are welcome to participate.
- Ground and chair seating will be available; chair seating may be limited and will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.
